A Merry Christmas To Every One

12-inch snowfall ties up city

Short spring ... wasn't it?

A low shopping cart stands cleared of snow on the Polo Park parking lot while a lot of cars are stuck in a jam. News Express bus is jammed on Portage at 11 a.m.

Sneak blizzard buries province

Spring breaking parts — officially — on Saturday, March 24, was a day of sneaking blizzards. The weather was in a state of flux, with a low pressure system moving in from the west, bringing a heavy snowfall to the province.

Peak winds reaching a force of six miles an hour left drifts of nearly four feet heaped against houses and blocking roads and highways.

At night time, the snow had virtually stopped falling and the visibility in the street reported even among a bit of sun peaking through the clouds.

While the snow was deepening steadily, and was reported to be in a state of flux, with a low pressure system moving in from the west, bringing a heavy snowfall to the province.

At night time, the snow had virtually stopped falling and the visibility in the street reported even among a bit of sun peaking through the clouds.

Accrual of Winnipeg International 1, in the ground in 24 inch winds whirled. Airport was not being ground but report 1 the snow did not, however.

Three countries okay Tuomioja as mediator

GENEVA (CP) — Finnish Foreign Minister Tuomioja has been named as a mediator in the Cyprus dispute. The appointment was announced by the governments of Cyprus, Greece, and Turkey.

The appointment by the three countries and accepted as such by the United Nations.

There was an official visit to the United Nations by the Finnish Foreign Minister Tuomioja.

A British news agency also reported that the United Nations had accepted Tuomioja as mediator.

Dear Subscriber:

When I am delivering your paper each day, I rarely get a chance to really talk to you. Even when I collect the money, I haven't much more time than to say 'thank you' and you must wonder sometimes whether I care or not. I do--- quite a lot, too.

What I'm trying to say is-- 'THANKS'-- for being my customer. And a very Merry Christmas to all of you.

Your Paperboy

Helmut Thobaben

P.S. Oh! and a
Happy New Year too!
